LCCOM

FedExport® Remote (Branches or Customers)

Product overview

The FedExport® Remote Capturing application allows scanning checks received at the Branches or at your Customers offices and send the batches securely encrypted to your main location for consolidation of the cash letters of deposit and further processing on your core banking system.

Product Benefits

- Clearance of deposit operations faster.
- Saving in transportation volume and fees.
- Replacement of the microfilming process.
- Increase funds availability.
- More efficient customer service and operations.
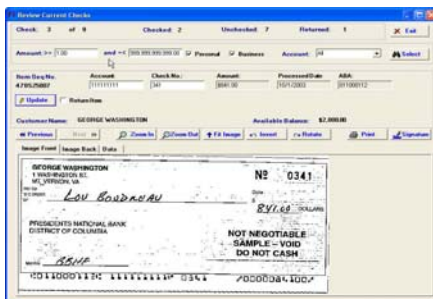

Product Features

- Multi Vendor Items Capturing Scanning (Canon, Panini and others) and Checks CAR-LAR Recognition.
- Security file encryption AES-256
- CAR-LAR Character recognition Integrated.

Application Architecture

- Client/Server: two tiers architecture, multi user and database running on a database server with TCP/IP connection
- Stand alone on a PC running the application and the database engine.

Environment and Hardware Requirements

- Operating System for Client : Windows XP - Vista with Net Framework 2.0
- Operating System for Server: Windows 2003 with SQL Sever 2005
- Data Base Server: MS SQL 2005

(*)FedForward/Fedline Services - Are Service Marks of the Federal Reserve Bank-Financial Services.